

Acil Winter oil

Type and composition:

Winter oil contain 88 % v/v Mineral oil.

Mode of Action:

Mineral oil with contact action.

Advantage and properties:

Acil: Winter oil, with contact action, sprayed in dormancy period to control many of insect such as: scale insect, aphids, spider mite, and mealy bug special in dormancy stage.

Acil: used before bud bloom to control dormancy stage for insect and its eggs

Acil: used on pome fruit, stone fruit and citrus.

Acil: Don't mixed with sulfur, it must be the period between the uses of oil at least three weeks from the time of spraying sulfur.

Acil: may be fatal if swallowed and enters airways, causes serious eye irritation, harmful effects to aquatic life.

Application rate:

Crop	Pest	Rate of application	Time of spraying
Apple, cherries, plum, Pear, peach, citrus.	Scale insects, Aphid, mites, mealy bug, spider mites	300-400 ml/20 L water	Spray in dormancy period & Before buds bloom

