

Amigo 25 EC

Type and composition:

Insecticide for public health contains 2.5 % Lambda- cyhalothrin w/v in form Emulsifiable Concentrate (EC).

Mode of Action:

Non-systemic insecticide with contact and stomach action, and repellent properties. Gives rapid knockdown and long residual activity.

Advantage and properties:

Amigo 25 EC: highly effective against flying and crawling insects of importance to public health and is used in the fight against flies, mosquitoes, cockroaches.

Amigo 25 EC: compatible with other insecticide.

Amigo 25 EC: harmful if inhaled, harmful if swallowed, May be fatal if swallowed and enters airways, may cause respiratory irritation, flammable, may cause drowsiness or dizziness, Very toxic to aquatic life, very toxic to bees.

Application rate:

1. Residual spraying:

Dilute AMIGO 25 EC with clean water at rate of 1: 200 to control of flying and crawling insects as cockroaches, bugs, ant, silverfish, lice, and use 10 ml / m² extended residual activity, double the rate in order to achieve residual activity up to six weeks.

