

Acizone

Type and composition:

Insecticide for veterinary uses contains 60 % w/v Diazinone in the form Emulsifiable concentrate (EC)

Mode of Action:

Non-systemic insecticide with contact, stomach, and respiratory action.

Advantage and properties:

Acizone: for veterinary uses to control ectoparasites as ticks, lice, fleas and screw worms and treatment of mange

Acizone: on Sheep, cows, camels and other farm animals and other farm animal in stables and animal housing.

Acizone: uses as a dip or sprays solution

Acizone: moderate toxicity to mammalian, toxic to fish and bees.

Application rate:

1- Spray:

- Animals: Dilute with water at rate of 1:1000
- Housing: Dilute with water at rate of 1:29 and use the solution spray at a rate of 50-100 ml/m² (1-2 gm a, i / m²), according to the treated surface and the time to be effective, avoid contact with animal eyes.

2- Dip:

- Large animals (cattle, camels): Dilute with water at a rate of 1: 1000 replenish 1:400
- Small animals (sheep, goats): Double the previous dilution rate and replenish rate.

Safety period:

Meat: 2 weeks

Milk: 3 days

